"My uncle is doing VERY well at his new home and has adjusted nicely. He now participates in almost everything - parties, games, outings, and really enjoys the schedule flexibility, quiet and small community of the facility. They are really amazing with him. He's in much better health and appearance and has resistance to no one!

I will always continue to attribute his smooth transition of a very difficult, resistant situation to you guys! The help you have provided has allowed a positive family network to continue while providing him the best care possible without me caving in from stress and overload in the meantime- you were the answer to every prayer I said and I hope your goodness comes back to every one of you 😊"
