Speaker: Martha Kern

Chief Marketing Officer of Lifecare Innovations

Ms. Kern has more than 15 years of experience working with seniors and those with disabilities.

Social isolation is now believed to be as influential on mortality as obesity and smoking — it is truly a matter of life and death. Join us as we examine the prevalence of loneliness and social isolation and discuss contributing factors, risk factors and successful tactics for preventing and curbing their effects.

Participating Social Workers, RNs and NHAs will be eligible to receive 1 CEU at the completion of this program. Certificates will be provided by Lifecare Innovations.
