

AUTUMN LEAVES OF ST. CHARLES presents

WHEN STUFF TAKES OVER A LIFE: THE HOARDING DILEMMA

Presented by Martha M. Kern, Chief Marketing Officer for Lifecare Innovations

Did your loved one like to collect things when they were younger – whether it was coins, stamps, or other types of memorabilia? Has their need to collect or save objects grown since they were diagnosed with Alzheimer's or another form of dementia? We are hosting an event with Lifecare Innovations, Inc., to explore the hoarding phenomenon and offer caretakers effective ways to approach the problem. Light refreshments will be offered.

Martha M. Kern is Chief Marketing Officer for Lifecare Innovations, Inc. Ms. Kern launched the company's property services program, known as Lifecare Home Solutions, and has worked on dozens of cases involving large amounts of hoarded material. Ms. Kern is also a frequent writer and speaker on the subject of hoarding.
